John G. Winant Takes Own Life

Diplomat, 58, Shoots Self With Belgian Pistol; in Ill Health

Concord, N. H., Nov. 4 (AP)—John G. Winant, wartime ambassador to Great Britain and three-times governor of New Hampshire, shot himself to death last night with a .32 calibre Belgian pistol.

The 55-year-old diplomat, who retired only in January as permanent U. S. representative on the United Nations Economic and Social Council, was officially pronounced a suicide by Medical Director Clarence E. Butterfield. Dr. Butterfield attributed the act to overwork.

His secretary, J. Bernard Teulon, said Winant's health had not been good and that a doctor advised him to "take things easy" as he had a heart condition and was suffering kidney or bladder trouble.

"I know Mr. Winant has been working very hard lately on writing and business affairs and I believe that he suddenly cracked," said Teulon. "This suicide was done on the spur of the moment."

Governor Charles M. Dale of New Hampshire said his predecessor would be considered a casualty of World War II.

Winant had just completed his memoirs, "Letter From Grosvenor Square," for November 15 publication and was understood to be planning a sequel.

His body was found lying face down near a firearms cabinet in his son's bedroom by a secretary and maid after they heard a thud—but no shot.

Doctors said there were indications Winant had fired the bullet through his right temple while kneeling.

A box of headache pills, some missing, was in the room.

Two guns were nearby—the Belgian pistol and a German luger that apparently had been thrown against the bedroom wall when Winant could not find ammunition.

Winant, "in pretty good spirits" according to his secretary, ate lunch downstairs yesterday in his home adjacent to exclusive St. Paul's School, where he once was a student and later a teacher. He went upstairs shortly afterward and had dinner served in his room. No one saw him until they heard the thud about 7:30 p. m. (E.S.T.). He died an hour later without regaining consciousness.

Though a Republican, Winant became a loyal supporter of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt and campaigned openly for him and the New Deal.

Born of a wealthy family in New York city, February 23, 1889, Winant was educated at St. Paul's and Princeton University, where he majored in American history.

Starting out as a teacher at St. Paul's, he entered politics in 1916 to gain what he told a friend was "practical experience every teacher should have."

He won a seat in the New Hampshire Legislature but his political career was interrupted almost immediately by World War I.

Winant enlisted in the Army Air Corps, rose from private to captain while serving overseas, and was cited for gallantry under fire.

Upon his return, Winant went back into politics. After serving two more terms in the state Legislature, he defeated the late Frank Knox, newspaper publisher and a seasoned campaigner, for the Republican nomination for governor.

Winant won the governorship, where he was to break a New Hampshire precedent by serving three two-year terms.

Predicts Poland Will Come Under Red Domination; Says There's Terror

London, Nov. 4 (AP)—Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, Polish opposition leader who fled here from his Communist-dominated homeland, said today he was going to the United States soon "to see friends." He added, however, that he had not yet decided whether to join the International Peasant party organization in Washington.

He predicted that Poland "will come more and more under Communist control and more pressure will be put on the people following the coming of the Communists."

"If the Yalta decision could be fulfilled in Poland and there could be a free, unfettered election, I am quite sure that the Communist bloc would not get five per cent of the votes," Mikolajczyk asserted.

"But there has been a steady increase of the terror and it has grown more since the Communists were referring to the recent organization in Poland of a nine-nation Communist information bureau with headquarters at Belgrade."

"The real terror," he continued, "is in a new conference, 'has existed there all the time and we have been resisting it as much as we were able in the past two and one-half years."

"The feeling in Poland is very intense now. Methods have been introduced not only in political intimidation but also in the economic life which are quickening the way to the Communization of Poland."

To his suburban home came scores of messages of congratulation over his escape from Warsaw—some from friends made during his wartime exile here, others from Poles who choose to remain here rather than return to a Poland under Communist domination.

He planned a quiet day, resting and relaxing from a journey across most of a continent, over the heavily guarded Polish border, through the Russian-occupied zone of Germany, and by British R.A.F. plane to England.

Mikolajczyk arranged a conference for later in the day with Francis J. Wilk, London representative of the Polish Peasant party and editor of a Polish publication here.

Mikolajczyk declined to discuss his plans yesterday while relating the story of his decision to flee—prompted by what he said was the Polish government's plans to ex-

Experts Anticipate Move For Pensions, Other Benefits

Washington, Nov. 4 (AP)—Some labor relations experts look for unions to concentrate on old age pensions and similar benefits rather than a third round of post-war wage boosts when current contracts come up for renewal.

Most of the big contracts won't expire until after January 1. In the meantime, the special session of Congress starting November 17 will be asked by President Truman to do something about rising prices.

What Congress does—or does not do—on that score is certain to have a bearing on the forthcoming labor-management negotiations. Both the A.F.L. and C.I.O. are protesting bitterly against soaring living costs, but thus far the top leadership appears to have accepted the view that another pay rise would only be more inflationary.

So far most unions seem to have decided to apply pressure on Congress for action on prices as the best way to hold their economic ground. The C.I.O. came out yesterday with an appeal to all city and state industrial union councils to ask Congress members for restoration of price controls, rationing of some items, and allocation of scarce supplies.

The A.F.L. has said it wants Congress to crack down on "monopolies" which the Federation's Executive Council contends are keeping prices up. In an October economic survey, however, A.F.L. researchers declared that if present conditions prevail another round of wage increases will be sought.

The San Francisco A.F.L. convention called for increased old age benefits under Federal Social Security, indicating the way its high command is thinking. But the A.F.L. leadership leaves the bargaining and the contract demands strictly to its member unions.

The C.I.O. follows the same policy in general, but conferences

Bonus Cash Is Seen as Big Magnet

Total of 4,500,000 Is Expected at Polls; Veterans, Families Are Majority

Bureau Established GOP Confidence Shown by Fact Handling Agency Formed

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 4 (AP)—Four hundred million dollars in bonus cash for New York's World War 2 veterans was the prime magnet that promised to pull a record off-year number of voters to the polls today for an election notably dull on a statewide level but peppered with torrid local contests.

Despite threatening weather, the bulk of the state's 1,600,000 veterans and their kin were counted on by political organizations to swarm ballot booths and pull the "yes" lever on Amendment No. 1, authorizing New York to grant the largest aggregate bonus of any state in the nation.

Governor Dewey's Republican administration, which together with the Democratic party has endorsed the bonus, feels so certain of approval that it has established a special bureau to prepare for paying the money immediately after the turn of the year.

The amount to each veteran would range from $50 to $250, depending on the time and place of service. A 20 per cent increase in the state income tax and a one-cent boost in the state's two-cent levy on cigarettes has been authorized to liquidate the bonus bonds in 10 years.

An all-time off-year high number of voters—5,678,065—is registered in the city contends are expected to vote.

Political leaders attribute the great number primarily to registration by veterans and their families. But they also credit hot local issues.

New York Is Hottest The hottest is in New York city, where the Republican and Democratic organizations are supporting a proposition to represent proportional representation on the ground that it plays into the hands of Left Wingers, particularly Communists.

Proportional representation has given the American Labor, Liberal and Communist parties each two places on the city council. Residents of the metropolis are deciding today whether to substitute a system whereby the council would be composed of 25 members—one elected from each of the 25 state Senate districts in the city.

G.O.P. Chairman Glen R. Bedenkapp and Democratic Chairman Paul E. Fitzpatrick said they believed the bonus would be approved. They did not comment on the five other proposed constitutional amendments before the electorate today.

These would broaden absentee voting rights, permit the Legislature to fix its own salary, now limited constitutionally to $2,500 a year, provide a special court for removal or retirement of judges, Wingdale, N. Y., Nov. 4 (AP)—Charles Carlson, 55, and his wife, Winifred, 53, both of Dover Plains, N. Y., were killed last night when their truck collided with another vehicle on the Harlem Valley highway one mile north of Wingdale.

Carlson was killed immediately. His wife died later in Vassar Hospital of skull fracture and internal injuries.

State Trooper William Terin said the truck driven by Carlson ran into the rear of another truck driven by James Renaldi, 40, of West Hill road, Stamford, Conn., who was not injured.

The husband and wife were employed as attendants at Harlem Valley State Hospital.

MacArthur Plans Return to U. S., Is Baltimore Story

Triumphal Homecoming Is Part of Plan to Give Him Top G.O.P. Spot in '48

Baltimore, Nov. 4 (AP)—A story in the Baltimore Sun today said General Douglas MacArthur is planning "a triumphal return to the United States" next spring to "capture the Republican nomination" for president in 1948.

The story was written by Robert B. Cochrane, former chief of the Sun papers Tokyo bureau. It said: "Private advice from Tokyo received today state flatly that General Douglas MacArthur will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for president in 1948."

It is definitely known that MacArthur plans his "return" in April or May, the story said. "This is an open secret in the Japanese capital," and the "main topic of conversation across occupation dinner tables."

However, taboo has been placed against such discussions within earshot of most allied newspapers, it added.

Cochrane's story said the crew of MacArthur's private plane has been alerted to return to this country permanently next spring and that "MacArthur's pilot, Elmer 'Red' McBride, has already sold his automobile to an allied newspaper correspondent with delivery set for April."

Tokyo letters say MacArthur's delay in returning to the United States, like other war commanders who were feted in parades and public ceremonies shortly after the war ended, was dictated deliberately by a master-strategy which had the Republican nomination as its goal.

"MacArthur, they say, is too fine a tactician to allow any celebration of his Pacific victories to be wasted in a non-election year."

Comment Is Denied Tokyo, Nov. 4 (AP)—General MacArthur declined comment on a Baltimore Sun story which said he would seek the Republican nomination for president next year.

In refusing to comment the general adhered to his policy of silence on recurring reports that he might bid for presidential office.

Stolen Car Recovered In Hour's Time by Police

An auto reported stolen from in front of the Clinton Avenue Methodist Church Monday night was recovered in slightly more than an hour but several persons seen in the car made the escape, the police reported today.

Thomas Hoyt Clancy, 109 St. James street, reported at 8:35 p. m. that the auto had been taken and at 9:45 p. m. Officer Walter Van Steenburgh, who was on traffic duty at Abel and German streets, reported that he had recovered it.

The officer said he saw the car and gave chase, but that it turned left into German street and its occupants fled. He was not close enough when they abandoned the car to obtain identifying descriptions, he said, and a later search of the area was without result.

Vandenberg Makes Demand President Offer 'Total Bill'

Michigan Senator Declares U. S. Cannot Finance World Indefinitely; Offers Idea

Washington, Nov. 4 (AP)—Prospective Republican limitations on the Marshall plan began to take form today with a demand from Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) that the administration submit a "total bill" for world-wide aid proposals.

Vandenberg's assertion that "we cannot indefinitely underwrite the world" drew attention to a growing framework of requirements upon which the G.O.P. majority in Congress may insist before it approves any plan for economic help to Europe.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) already has said the cost of such aid ought to be limited to $4,500,000,000 in the next year. Senator White of Maine, the G.O.P. floor leader, told a reporter he thinks other party members will have "quite a few ideas of their own" when the special session begins considering the program November 17.

"I think the Republicans are going to be keenly interested in how the program is administered," White said. "I hope the President will send up a reasonable proposal that both sides can agree on. If he does, I believe that Congress will act quickly, so that the decks can be cleared to attack domestic problems."

Mr. Truman also has called for action to halt a domestic inflationary spiral, but White indicated this subject may be laid aside temporarily for debate on the aid program.

Vandenberg, returning to his desk here to begin preparations for Senate Foreign Relations Committee hearings on emergency European help proposals, made it plain in an Ann Arbor, Mich., speech yesterday that he has not softened his previous demand for a "total balance sheet" of world-wide aid, including that to China.

Agrees With Plan The Michigan senator said he is in agreement with Secretary of State Marshall's plan to help Europe by itself if the program is carried out under emergency administrative policies and with adequate cooperation from the nations receiving assistance.

Administration leaders have been talking privately in terms of $3,000,000,000 to $7,000,000,000 for the first year's economic aid to western Europe. But there has been no apparent effort to estimate now what sort of outlays will be required in China or elsewhere in Asia.

Taft has said that the Marshall plan "asks us for $8,000,000,000 in the calendar year 1948," an amount he contended is "beyond all reason." He also has urged that whatever program Congress approves be administered by one central agency. But Senator Hatch (D-N.M.) told a reporter he thinks this might prove impractical.

Taft has specified that so far as he is concerned, help must be limited to American goods that can be used primarily to restore the productive capacity of the recipient countries. The administration is said to be still debating whether to suggest dollar credits which recipient nations could spend wherever they and the required goods on the world market.

Specifically, Taft has complained about the Marshall plan's proposal to ship American coal when the Ohioan contends, there is "plenty of coal available and England and Europe if it is mined."

However, there seems to be one meeting ground on which many of these differences may be compromised. Republicans and Democrats alike appear to agree that something must be done to keep western Europe out of Communist hands.

Vandenberg said the issue between east and west in Europe has been underscored by Communist attitudes "incompatible" with peace.

Jersey Votes Constitution Newark, N. J., Nov. 4 (AP)—New Jersey voted today on a new state constitution, and leaders of both major parties predicted overwhelming majorities in favor of the streamlined document prepared by a special non-partisan constitutional convention last summer.

Study Group Includes Both Business, Labor Representatives; Farmers' Co-ops Taxation Discussed

Washington, Nov. 4 (AP)—A Citizens Advisory Committee on taxation recommended today "a reduction in individual income tax rates for all, with due regard for the cost of living of those in the lower income groups."

The study group was set up by the House Ways and Means Committee, and includes both business and labor representatives. Roswell Magill, former undersecretary of the treasury, heads it.

The group's report was submitted as the Ways and Means Committee assembled to prepare tax legislation for the special session of Congress convening November 17. Chairman Knutson (R-Minn.) has said he wants a bill cutting income taxes by $4,000,000,000 a year.

Also on the committee's list of business was the issue of whether farmers' cooperative associations should be taxed at the same rate as business corporations. On that, Undersecretary of the Treasury A. Lee M. Wiggins submitted a report suggesting a decision be deferred.

Wiggins said he thought it would be wise to put off a decision until the Treasury completes a study it is now making of the entire tax system.

While the content of the special tax study report was kept secret pending its formal submission to the Ways and Means group, there were clear indications of a sharp controversy within the advisory panel and the House Committee itself.

A close associate of A.F.L. Vice President Matthew Woll, a labor member of the 10-man study committee headed by Roswell Magill, announced that Woll would submit a minority report contending that the majority's recommendations would:

1. Severely reduce federal revenues; 2. Disregard revenue needs. Continued on Page Twelve

Korean Independence Talk Will Be Resumed in Assembly

Lake Success, Nov. 4 (AP)—The United Nations reopened debate on Korean independence today in a stepped-up drive to reach General Assembly adjournment before Thanksgiving.

American sources expressed confidence that Secretary of State Marshall's Korean proposal would be accepted by the 57-nation Political Committee during today's discussions. These sources also predicted defeat for a counter Soviet resolution calling on the United States and Russia to evacuate their troops from Korea by Jan. 1.

The Marshall proposal provides for a U.N. commission to oversee elections to be held not later than next March 31. Troops would be pulled out as soon as a government is set up.

With conclusion of work on the Korean question, the committee will turn to another Marshall proposal for creation of a year-around "Little Assembly." A modified version of the American plan was accepted in a 15-nation subcommittee yesterday, 9 to 0, with Russia and Czechoslovakia continuing their boycott and four other countries abstaining.

Both proposals eventually must go to the full Assembly for approval in plenary session. U.N. officials said, however, that they planned no more plenary sessions until Nov. 17 and would concentrate on committee work until that date.

At a plenary meeting last night delegates approved unanimously a world condemnation of propaganda that might threaten peace. The final action, confirming a 56-to-0 Political Committee vote, was taken only after Russia declared that it was a "half-way" measure which did not name "those countries" who were propagandists particularly widespread.

In the committee, the Soviet Union had withdrawn charges that the fires were being set by a group of boys. Officers Walter Van Steenburgh and Gurnsey Burger, Jr., were assigned to investigate.

Five Taken To Hospital, Discharged

Fire Is Believed Caused by Spark From Torch Used in Repair Work on Barge

Gases Are Reported

Fumes Are Released When Blazes Flare in Hold

Six local firemen suffered ill effects of smoke poisoning while fighting a stubborn blaze in the hold of a lighterage barge at the Dwyer boatyard Monday night.

Three of them, Firemen Joseph A. Cornelaki, Albert C. Hutton and Robert W. Hardwick, were discharged from the Kingston Hospital this morning after remaining overnight for treatment and observation.

The others, less seriously affected, were Deputy Chief James M. Brett, Fireman Clarence V. Maines and Capt. Edward H. Albrecht. The latter, who was off duty at the time but assisted in fighting the blaze, was treated at his home and the deputy chief and Maines were treated at the scene and later at the hospital.

Damage to the barge was unestimated today, but it was believed not to be extensive.

Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy said today that the fire appeared to be the result of a spark from a blow torch which had been used in repair work during the day.

Firemen were called at 9:15 a. m. and Deputy Chief Brett was in charge until the arrival of Chief Murphy.

Flames were coming up through the hatchways when the firemen arrived, the chief said, and the smoke, while not as dense as experienced in other similar fires, appeared to be extremely dangerous.

The fire was actually under control in less than a half hour, the chief reported, but the firemen remained on the scene until 1:35 a. m. to make sure that all smoldering parts of the under structure in enclosed sections were quelled.

Physician Is Called Fireman Cornelaki was the first to show effects of the smoke poisoning and the department's emergency unit was ordered to the scene. The fumes hit Fireman Hutton next and then Fireman Hardwick. The three others discovered later that they had also been affected.

Dr. Kenneth LeFever, fire department physician, was called and assisted in administering first aid treatment and two W. N. Conner ambulances were called. Inhalators were used both at the scene and while the men were being conveyed to the hospital. Dr. LeFever later was sent to the home of Capt. Albrecht to treat him there.

Chief Murphy issued an order for the day crew to replace the injured firemen and they were still on duty today. The injured firemen, although discharged from the hospital may not be able to resume their duties later today, the Alderman Thomas Coughlin of the Seventh Ward was among the first to notice the fire and equipment from Central and Cornell stations were dispatched to the scene.

Two lines of hose were laid for the blaze and the chief said a collar pipe and water distributing units were used to combat the blaze because of its enclosed nature. The distributor whirled the water in several directions and the other unit facilitates the fighting of a fire in confined areas.

The department's emergency unit was dispatched to the scene after the first fireman was reported overcome.

Fire Tells Police Grass Fires Suspicions

Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy notified police headquarters Monday night of his suspicions that two grass fires were set deliberately.

This action came after a call for a grass fire at 7:43 p. m., was followed by another on the return of the firemen. The first was for a grass fire on Lawrence street and the second for another near 115 Moore street.

The chief said he suspected that the fires were being set by a group of boys. Officers Walter Van Steenburgh and Gurnsey Burger, Jr., were assigned to investigate.

Dyrus Cook Explains Stable State Theory

Woodstock, Nov. 4.—Dyrus Cook outlines his plan for a collectivist unit within the free enterprise system on Sunday evening when the Woodstock Discussion group met at the home of Miss Elsa Kimball. Dyrus Cook, author of City of God, is preparing for a lecture tour during which he might have an opportunity to acquaint peoples of the country with his suggested way of life.

In describing his ideal, Mr. Cook said it had some relation to all of the other Utopian units in this country. "We have had a good many of them," said the speaker, "but in my ideal community there would be a group working for each other... a condition of society that cannot be so easily upset when leaders get emotional ideas that run amuck. I have built my economic state on three ideas; namely, freedom, non-violence, and prodigious labor."

To start the Stable State as Mr. Cook calls his idea, it was learned that first it would be necessary for a philanthropist to become interested and back the project financially. The members of the community would be carefully selected. They must be people who like discipline and whose aims would be friendliness and neighborliness and who must be of good moral character. The community would be self-supporting and embrace from 200 to 1,000 members.

The speaker pointed out that most other communities were founded on a religious principle but in Stable State, peoples of all creeds would live happily together. They would own nothing individually, and all would receive like wages for their work. The communities would be governed by committees elected by the members for a term of three years only.

Mr. Cook stated that the communities would be rural or preferably, said he, "My ideal would be a fusion of farm and factory workers."

The speaker has dreamed of his collectivist unit for many years, since he was a young man, and he believes this to be the opportune moment for its presentation.

Girl Scouts Entertain 200 at Halloween Party

Woodstock, Nov. 4.—More than 200 children arrived early at the Town Hall on Friday evening to accept the hospitality of the town's Girl Scouts who were hostesses to all residents of the township at a Halloween party when prizes were awarded for the best pumpkin faces as well as costumes. Andy Lee, won first prize in the pumpkin face contest with Tony McCallister and Louella Lapo taking second and third respectively.

Amy Goodenough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Goodenough, was awarded first prize for the best costume in the under 10-year-old group. Amy was an animated sugar sack. In the over-10 group, Linda Lilly received first prize, the baby with complete entourage. Betsy Wagenfohr as Red Riding Hood, leading her police dog Ritzy, supposedly the wolf, was awarded second prize in this group and Joan Stowell, society girl, third prize. Bob Peterson, received first prize in the boys' group.

The spooky wall murals were contributed by members of the Woodstock Artists Association including Carl Fortess, Howard Mandel, Austin Mechlem, and Reginald Wilson.

Children of all ages filled the floor for the many square dances during the evening. The adults were certainly the wall flowers on this occasion but had a wonderful time watching the young people.

At the close of the festivities, Joe Friedberg came to the committee's assistance by forming a broom brigade to clean the hall and return chairs to their former places, leaving all in readiness for the moving picture performance on the day following.

Mrs. Irving Ostrander, chairman, has expressed her appreciation to the ladies of her committee and to all those in the township who took part in making this first Open House Halloween party such a wonderful success.

War Memorial Design Committee Group Meets

Woodstock, Nov. 4.—The Design Committee of the Woodstock War Memorial, met last Thursday evening in the Town Hall to complete as far as possible the details in connection with the final design submitted by Mariamne Appel, whose design has been chosen for the memorial on the Village Green. The Rev. Harvey I. Todd was acting chairman of the meeting.

Before submitting the design to the general committee, a mock-up will be tried out on the Green. It is expected this will be done the early part of the week.

Present at the meeting were Kenneth L. Wilson, town supervisor, Eugene Ludins, John Peper, Montecena DeWitt, Carl Fortess, Tomas Penning, Wilna Harvey and the Rev. Harvey I. Todd.

A committee to advise on technicalities in connection with the design includes: Tomas Penning, Montecena DeWitt and John Peper. Flat benches made of limestone were tentatively agreed upon as the Green, although the committee will look at more sketches of benches before the final decision is made.

Two Local Girl Scouts Kingston Flag Bearers

Woodstock, Nov. 4.—Woodstock residents were proud of the honor conferred upon them at the inspirational meeting of U.S. Scout Scouts held on Sunday afternoon in Kingston High School auditorium when Ann Wolfahrt and Patricia Shultis, members of the older intermediate Woodstock Troop 29, carried the American flag.

Other Scouts from the township attending "Scouts Own" were Verna Bradley, Joanne Lee, Libby Lee, Bryana and Letha Thayer, Mary and Louella Lapo, Joan and Dianne Mower, Elsie and Anne May, Katherine Ostrander, Karen King, Ruth Van Bogart, Kathleen Hung, Jean Pasco, Jean and Susan White, Barbara and Priscilla Hastie and Nancy Ostrander.

Mrs. Reginald Lapo, troop leader, and Mrs. William Mower, Mrs. Theodore Lee, Mrs. Ethel White, Mrs. Harry Ostrander, troop committee members, were responsible for the Scouts' transportation.

Woodstock, Nov. 4.—A six-minute telephone call from Lieutenant John Cleveland, stationed in Korea with the Army Engineers to his wife in Woodstock, on Saturday evening, brought the happy news that Mrs. Cleveland and her young son would be able to join Lieutenant Cleveland possibly during the Christmas holiday. Mrs. Cleveland expects they will remain in Korea for about one year.

The Rev. and Mrs. Harvey I. Todd with Mr. and Mrs. L. Monte Simpkins will visit in Providence, R. I., for several days, the latter part of this week.

Mrs. Harvey I. Todd will be in New York for two days attending conferences.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Schrader and their two children have moved to the Lake Chataqua area, where Mr. Schrader recently received an appointment as district ranger.

Mother of 9 Children Resisted Eviction

New York, Nov. 4 (AP)—Prepared for what she called a long "siege" a 42-year-old mother of 9 children locked herself and three of her offspring in their $28-a-month home yesterday, resisting all attempts by police and building department inspectors to evict her because the building had been condemned as unsafe for occupancy.

Police turned back the father, Andrew McDonald, and the children who were attending school when they returned home yesterday afternoon. But Mrs. McDonald and the two other children held the fort inside.

Mrs. McDonald told reporters through the window "the holidays are coming and I want my family together."

U. S. Helped Escape

Berlin, Nov. 4 (AP)—An American Military Government source said today that Stanislaw Mikolajczyk was aided in his dramatic 15-day flight from Warsaw to London by a sort of "underground railway" set up by U. S. and British Army intelligence sections to help "interesting personalities" escape from east to west.

This informant said the Polish Peasant party leader fled Warsaw October 20 and arrived in the British zone of Germany Saturday.

An informed American source here said those who helped him escape were "especially trained and practiced in aiding persons escaping from the east to the west, such as scientists, technicians, scholars, politicians and others. This source said such persons were being moved westward at a rate of two a day.

"We get some hot customers—not with the breath of the Russian pursuers on their necks," the informant said. "Some of these have been Russian scientists who fled the Soviet Union and made their way to the United States or British sectors of Berlin and applied to us as refugees."

The work was described as a vestige of the old "Operation Paper Clip" by which various German scientific and technical experts were taken to the United States.

A War Department detachment taking orders only from the high-ranking authorities was reported to be in charge of the American phase of the work.

among leaders of the various unions result in a "pattern" of demands.

Meanwhile, the National Foremen's Institute, which describes its three-monthly collective bargaining bulleting as "a streamlined labor relations service for employers," said in its latest issue that General Motors Corporation will be the first to feel the pension plan "push."

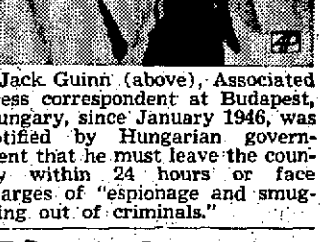

As if to bear that out, the C.I.O.-United Auto Workers newspaper said the Ford Motor Company settlement—in which the workers chose an immediate pay raise as preferable to the more distant benefits of a pension plan—should not fool anybody.

The publication said that if the auto industry interprets that action as meaning the union is not interested in pensions, it "is sadly and dangerously mistaken."

The C.I.O. convention itself adopted a resolution urging vigorous collective bargaining efforts for old age pensions, guaranteed annual incomes and other so-called "security" clauses.

With this as background, the Foremen's Institute Bulletin said labor leaders are admitting privately they would like to avoid another wage round battle because they don't want to up price levels.

Bureau Would Halt Canadian Fowl Imports

Lockport, N. Y., Nov. 4 (AP)—The Poultry Commodity Committee of the Niagara County Farm Bureau wants an immediate action on Canadian poultry imports, which the committee says are cutting our western New York producers.

R. W. Lennartson, associate director of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Poultry Division, said yesterday he would ask Under-Secretary of Agriculture Norris E. Dodd to consider this and three other steps the committee proposed.

The committee asked the embargo until market conditions cleared, and also a permanent "market limitation" on Canadian imports, abolition of poultryless and eggless Thursdays in this country and permission to import feed grain from Canada.

Alpheus O'Neill of Gasport said at a committee meeting that the October receipts at the Buffalo Poultry Market were 10 per cent Canadian, 31 per cent from Ohio, Pennsylvania and Delaware and 23 per cent from the Niagara frontier.

The poultrymen said Canadians were buying feed at about $2.85 a hundred pounds and thus could undersell growers paying prices here as high as $3.50.

Wallace Says East Not as Tense as Had Been Reported

New York, Nov. 4 (AP)—Former Vice President Henry A. Wallace arrived at LaGuardia Field today by plane from Rome after a three-week tour of Europe and the Middle East.

Wallace, who spent 12 days in Palestine, said "the tension is not as great as it had been reported."

He added that he had talked with leading Arabs and Jews and "the outlook of each is dependent upon what position they hold in view, bankers taking the economic view, farmers that of the worker."

The former secretary of commerce, who now is editor of the New Republic, declared he did not believe "there will be a great amount of bloodshed" after withdrawal of British forces from Palestine.

Wallace said he had talked with prominent persons and leaders of the various political groups in Italy and that "all are agreed on one thing: Italy is in serious need of our wheat by February. They are all looking to us with hope."

Disabled Veterans' Campaign Points Explained by Cook

Andrew J. Cook, Jr., today announced the opening of the Ulster county campaign for the National Service Fund of the Disabled American Veterans. Working with Mr. Cook is the following county committee: George C. Rifenbary, Kingston; Mrs. Richard Jones, Hurley; LeGrand Haviland, Jr., Highland; Mrs. Anne Olsen, Marlborough; Mrs. Vivian Plich, New Paltz; Mrs. Percy Gazlay, Accord; Mrs. John J. Duffy, Sr., Rosendale; Benjamin Lonsdale, Ellenville; and Donald Van Ert, Kerhonkson.

Discussing one phase of D.A.V.'s service program, Mr. Cook spoke from a lawyer's viewpoint when he said, "It stands to reason that if disabled veterans are to obtain the full protection that Congress intended, many of them will need the advice and help of persons familiar with the laws governing veterans' rights. I do not believe that this is the type of service that usually could be rendered by the ordinary practicing lawyer. Too often the time spent by the lawyer would be all out of proportion to the amount involved, and either the lawyer would be underpaid or the veteran overcharged."

Mr. Cook continued, "It has been suggested that the government might employ persons to act as counsel for the disabled veterans. This would, I believe, be impracticable. Such employees of the government would almost inevitably develop a psychology which would cause them to try to save the government money instead of seeing that absolute justice was done to the veteran. D.A.V.'s plan is the training of war-disabled men as specialists in veterans' legislation, who can advise and help a disabled veteran in securing the benefits that Congress and a grateful America want him to have."

Ulster county has a goal of only $2,440 in this $2,500,000 national appeal for public support of the greatly increased work of the D.A.V. Mr. Cook and his committee have every hope and expectation of putting over this drive speedily.

Was 'Under Wraps'
New York, Nov. 4 (AP)—Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., in his book "War As I Knew It," published this week, said that "in every case, practically throughout the (European) campaign, I was under wraps from the high command. This may have been a good thing, as perhaps I am too impetuous." Patton said in the book written in 1945 and published posthumously by Houghton Mifflin Co., "However, I do not believe I was, and feel that had I been permitted to go all out, the war would have ended sooner and more lives would have been saved."

Scotland Holds Elections

London, Nov. 4 (AP)—The political spotlight swung to Scotland today as 69 cities and towns held municipal elections regarded by many observers as a barometer of public reaction toward the policies of Prime Minister Attlee's Labor government. The fact that Scotland is predominantly Conservative, except around industrial Glasgow, led to predictions that the vote would show a continuation of the rightwing trend witnessed Saturday in local elections in England and Wales.

Getting Rid of Trouble
Did you say you have a trouble? If you wish to make it double, just tell it to your neighbor in a confidential way. Spread it out where folks can know it. Let your face and action show it. Do not let a soul forget it. From the dawn till close of day. Would your soul forget its trouble? Make it vanish like a bubble. Then you put that little trouble in a closet out of sight. Did it stay there all unheeded. Say its presence is not needed. Then you start to work at something. That requires mind and might. Set yourself to work for others. For your struggling, burdened brothers. You will find so many burdens heavier than the one you bear. That your trifling little trouble soon will vanish like a bubble. And your very self, my brother, will forget 'twas ever there.

A.P. Correspondent Is Expelled; His Secretary Arrested

London, Nov. 4 (AP) — Jack Guinn, 31, Associated Press correspondent in Hungary for the last 22 months, has been expelled by the Communist-dominated government of that country and expects to leave Budapest today for Vienna.

The government notified Guinn yesterday that he must leave Hungary within 24 hours or face charges of "espionage" and the smuggling of criminals out of the country. Guinn decided to leave the country after conferring with U. S. Minister Seiden Chapin.

Guinn's wife and two children will follow him to Vienna shortly, by U. S. legation plane.

The Hungarian government action against Guinn followed by a week the arrest of his American-born secretary, Miss Elizabeth K. Pallos, 31, and by three days the expulsion from Yugoslavia of Arthur M. Brandel, Belgrade correspondent for the New York Times.

The Hungarian minister of interior issued a statement saying that political police had discovered an organization for espionage in connection with which Miss Pallos and seven other persons had been detained.

"In connection with the discovery of this organization," the statement said, "ministry of the interior authorities expelled Mr. Jack Guinn, Associated Press correspondent, from Hungary for espionage."

Brandel and his wife, Mary Lester, United Press correspondent, left Belgrade yesterday. They were ousted for what the Yugoslavs termed "offensive" writing.

Yesterday's statement by the interior ministry in Budapest was the first detailing of any reason for the detention of Miss Pallos. She was born in Pittsburgh, of Hungarian parentage. The U. S. legation took up her case with the Hungarian government, claiming she was an American citizen. Hungarian officials claimed she was a Hungarian.

The statement connected most of the persons detained with the opposition parties of Deszo Sulyok, who fled Hungary three months ago because, he said on arrival in Vienna, he was "in fear of his life;" and of Zoltan Pfeiffer, whose arrest the government has threatened.

Guinn was born at Rusk, Texas, on October 18, 1916, and attended the University of Texas at Austin. He served with other news agencies from 1939 to 1945—much of the time in the war theatres—and joined the Associated Press in April, 1945. He has been Budapest correspondent since January, 1946.

To Speak Nov. 5

MARCIA B. COHEN

Mrs. Alfred D. Ronder, chairman of the Women's Division of the United Jewish Appeal for refugees overseas needs and Palestine, announces that Mrs. Marcia B. Cohen of Longview, Washington, one of American Jewry's outstanding leaders and noted civic and philanthropic workers, will be the guest speaker at the dessert tea to be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Ahavath Israel Vestry Hall. The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. N. B. Gross, Mrs. Walter Robinson and Mrs. Herbert Greenwald. All Kingston women are cordially invited as guests.

This is part of the $170,000,000 campaign of the national drive. The Kingston goal is $125,000. The United Jewish Appeal provides the funds for the Joint Distribution Committee, which supports large-scale relief, rehabilitation and reconstruction assistance to Europe's 1,500,000 surviving Jews; the United Palestine Appeal, which provides for the mass settlement and rebuilding of the Jewish homeland in Palestine; and the United Service for New Americans, which makes possible expanded adjustment services for refugee-newcomers to the United States.

Long identified with a score of Jewish and general welfare causes, Mrs. Cohen has achieved an enviable reputation for her work among the homeless refugees of Europe who have found haven in the United States. In her native Longview, she served with distinction as chairman of the local Rehabilitation Committee for Refugees and played a leading role in integrating newcomers into the American scene.

*Mrs. Cohen is a past president of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Longview and was a membership chairman for the community concert series, which she introduced to her home town.

Her intimate knowledge of Jewish life both here and abroad and her dynamic personality as a lecturer have earned her an authoritative position in directing attention to the desperate needs of Europe's Jewish survivors.

Officers of the new group are: president, Joan Grunwald; vice president, Estelle Roche; secretary, Dolores Costello; treasurer, Theresa Clausi.

Miss Quinn advised the juniors to work for the freedom of God and their country, to honor the Sacred Heart, to be faithful to their duties and to the social duties of the church, and by their good example be a credit at home, in school and in the city.

The Rev. William Dunnigan of St. Ann's Parish, Sawkill, who is keenly interested in juniors, said that if he were delivering a sermon he would choose as his text, "This is a Day the Lord Hath Made."

He was impressed by the ceremony and invited the young people to Sawkill for hikes, dances and other affairs.

Mrs. Kathryn McGowan, grand regent of Marlborough Court spoke of the remarkable work done by her juniors.

The altar to the Sacred Heart was decorated by Miss Pauline Grunwald with the Misses Frances Caruso, Bertha Shupp and Dorothy Tancredi, comprise the counsellors. Songs and marches were played by Mrs. Kathryn Lisbon. Hostesses were the Misses Lillian Gardner, Louella Quilty, Anna Snow and Laura Albrecht.

The Junior Catholic Daughters of Marlborough who assisted in the ceremony were the Misses Gloria DeFelici, Lynda Bougeouvanini, Irene Mosco, Ellen Burke and Patricia Quinn.

Mr. Stine Receives Favorable Review For Chorus Work

"The chorus in particular outdid itself for Mr. Stine, singing their six numbers with poise and impact, and the dewy zeal peculiar to young choristers," says the review in the Hartford Daily Courant of last Friday. The review referred to the Connecticut All-State Concert sponsored by the Connecticut Music Educator's Association Thursday in Bushnell Memorial Hall, Hartford.

Leonard Stine, who is music supervisor at the Kingston public schools and directs the Kingston High School Appella Choir, was invited by the Connecticut association to direct the chorus of 332 voices for the concert. He rehearsed with the group last Wednesday and Thursday in much the same manner as the sectional festival was conducted in the high school here last November.

The chorus sang "Send Out Thy Light," Schuetky-Aschenbrenner; "Dark Water," James; "Oh, Susanna," Foster-Cain; "Take Joy Home," Bassett-Rigger; "Prologue," Schuman; "Battle Hymn of the Republic," Steffe.

Moshe Parancov, pianist, conductor and composer, conducted the All State Orchestra; and Carleton Stewart, director of music in the public schools of Mason City, Iowa, and president of the National Band Association, conducted the All State Band.

Good Taste Today

By Emily Post
(Author of "Etiquette," "Children Are People," etc.)

IN HOUSE WITH MANY GUESTS

A letter says: "When invited to spend a week-end at a friend's house, is it good taste to tip the household servants? It always has been my belief that this is not only incorrect but also an insult to the host and hostess. However, a friend of mine tells me that I am wrong about this and so I would like your opinion."

It is not unheard of in certain houses, whose owners feel as you do, for a printed notice to be put up in each guest's bedroom announcing: "Special provision is being made by the owner for recognizing his employees for extra service rendered his guests. The latter are requested to give no tips."

You Are Right
Dear Mrs. Post: Recently the father of a club friend passed away. Although we have a rule that flowers are sent to a family in that instance, several of the girls, in addition, sent flowers individually, since the girl's home had been one for many of our club parties and all of us knew the father personally. At a meeting, this bereaved friend thanked every one collectively for all they had done. Those who sent flowers individually don't even know if their flowers were received. Shouldn't she have written to these members personally?

Answer: A few words of thanks across her visiting card certainly should have been sent to each of these individual givers.
Dear Mrs. Post: My friend and I recently dined in a restaurant which features "Chicken in the Rough" — using no silverware. (Instead of serving hamburgers or "hot dogs," these places feature fried chicken.) At the end of our meal, we were brought one finger-bowl between us. Can you tell me what procedure should have been followed so that neither one of us would have had to use the other's greasy water?

Answer: My only thought is to have asked for another finger bowl. Better still, if fastidious—stay away!
Dear Mrs. Post: A friend of mine is in town visiting her mother, who lives alone. Would it be very rude of me to invite this friend to dine with me and not invite her mother, too?

Answer: It isn't discourteous to your friend's mother if you don't include her in your invitation. I can't see how her mother could possibly feel slighted.

Child Study Club 2
The regular meeting of Child Study Club 2 was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. William J. Anderson, Port Ewen. Following the regular business meeting, Mrs. Raymond Garraghan read an interesting article.

Mrs. George Chilson gave the paper of the evening entitled, "How to re-develop attitudes and a Sense of Values." She discussed how basic attitudes are influenced directly by every action of the parents. She said it is very important for parents to judge and interpret value and attitudes for the child.

Following the paper, Mrs. Chilson read several excerpts from James Lee Ellingwood's amusing book, "No Place Like Home." At the conclusion of the meeting, refreshments were served with the hostess assisted by Mrs. Chilson.

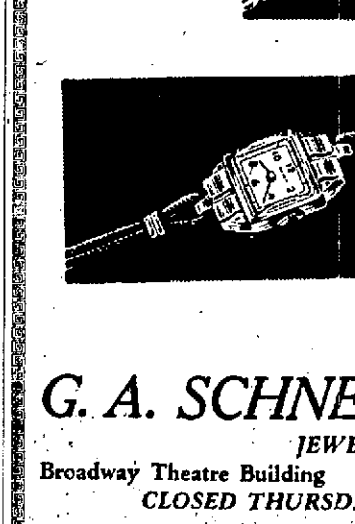

The next meeting, November 13 will be at the home of Mrs. Donald Swan, Port Ewen.

In The Pocket

with CHARLIE TIANO

Bagatelles . . .
When all factors are weighed, the shortcomings of the Kingston High School squad on offense stem from a lack of speed. . . The manpower, the defensive strength is there. . . The offensive speed which is vitally needed is missing. . . Jack Keating is as fast as any back in the circuit, including Port Jervis' vaunted Nicolette and Drinko, but the remainder of the cast is not to be confused with Mercury. . . If these eternal deadlocks continue, Kingston could still win the title with a 1,000 batting average. . . Sponsors of the round robin schedule not even in their wildest dreams could have predicted the amazing turn of events. . . The situation in the DUSO conference is such today that Newburgh, once universally consigned to the league cellar, is knocking on the roof tops. . . From here on out it's even money, take your pick. . . Have pity on Middletown's mysterious "Old Timer" who had a rough day Saturday. . . He picked Port Jervis and Kingston. . .

Flotsam and Jetsam . . .
Billy Van Aken's regime as local golf kingpin might last several years. . . Two-fifths of his representatives in 1946 and 1947 have not been up to par. . . Although perfect weather prevailed, the crowds did not come up to expectation. . . Reason: too late in the season. . . The club championships are an annual headache to the pros and the club tournament directors. . . They arrange pairings and set up schedules in good faith and the individual competitors blissfully ignore them and play their matches when it suits their convenience. . . Which is okay, perhaps, since golf locally is a pure amateur sport. . . But we have always felt that a golfer who enters a tournament or permits his name to be entered, should regard his schedule as a personal obligation. . . If he can't meet it, he should forfeit on schedule. . . Club championships at both courses should be over by Labor Day. . . Roy Vogt's suggestions that club open titles be decided by 36 holes of medal play has considerable merit. . . At least the tournament could be cleared up in a week-end. . . Incidentally, a Vogt-Van Aken match would be a treat for the duffers. . .

Of Men and Mice . . .
The Bill Burke-Frank La Falce, teacher-pupil system has fallen into a lean year indeed. . . While Kingston has scored two touchdowns and tied Newburgh, Middletown, Port Jervis and Highland, the southern Ulster eleven is trying to forget draws with Kingston, Highland Falls, Walden and Liberty. . . Sam Kallosh's Poughkeepsie machine was spanked for the third time this season, 16-7, by Glen Cove, L. I., Saturday. . . It's been a disastrous campaign for Sam but he realizes that a victory over Kingston Saturday will retrieve much lost prestige and the Elus and Whites will be "up" for this historic clash. . . Walden High's Everett McCormick is rated on a par with Ray Nicolette of Port Jervis as a backfield runner. . . Sam Christiansen scored 22 points to pace Amrods to a 58-32 victory over West Camp in the Saugerties basketball league. . . Garland's won over Canine's, 41-25, Van Etten sinking 14 points. . .

An old timer in Hudson picked his all-time pro basketball squad as follows: Johnny Beckman and Harry Hoff, forwards; Dick Leary, center; Andy Soutles and Dutch Dehnert, guards. . .

This Ben Agajanian of the Los Angeles Dons is surely Mr. Foot in Football for 1947. . . His records include field goals of mere 53 and 51 yards this season, 31 straight conversions for this year, and 115 over a four-year span. . . He's the fellow, you know, who doesn't have any toes on his kicking foot.

Of This and Data . . .
Side by side in Jake Senor's downtown bannery: "Smoke" Watkins, ex-heavyweight amateur pugilist, and Luke Matthis, former Blue Sox hurler. . . Watkins, once idol of the local amateur boxing circles, fought several hectic duels with Marty Freiligh of Saugerties. . . Matthis is credited with a record he'd like to forget. . . One day at the old Fair Grounds he served up three snafus to a gopher pitcher to Rondout A. C. batters. . . But Brith railbirds think "Babyface" Decker's reach and height will prove the deciding factor in Thursday's bout against Harold Morton. . . Bobby Coyle, old Kingston Colonial first sacker, has opened a sporting goods store in Saugerties. . . Evelyn Moore picked off the 4-7-9-10 split Sunday night in the Mixed League. . . Judging from scores pouring out of the Y.M.C.A. alleys the old myth that they are tough to solve has been smashed to smithereens. . . Suggest sports writer we ever saw: Ralph Fredricks of the Port Jervis Gazette, Saturday at the stadium. . . Lead for the tri-state and you know what happened. . . Syracuse and Cornell have met 24 times on the gridiron but no game has ever ended in a tie. . . Louis Fisher, claims the town's heavyweight champion bartender at Town Cafe. . . The old bowling dynamite himself, Lou "Champ" Misal.

MULLIGAN MIKE SAYS: News item: Woman of 83 used phone the other day for the first time. . . Must be on a party line.

Cadets Don't Share Pessimism Of Coaching Staff and Scouts

West Point, N. Y., Nov. 4 (AP)—The U. S. Military Academy reflected none of the pessimism today of Coach Earl Blaik's scouts as the cadet football squad prepared to go into the heavy work in preparation for Notre Dame on Saturday.

Lt. John Green, a member of the Army coaching staff, told football writers at a luncheon in New York yesterday that "to me it is inconceivable that anyone should pick Army to win or even to keep from being walked over."

Green added that if his boss, an ex-Colonel, "was a General, he would refuse to send his soldiers into a battle of annihilation."

The writers acknowledged that it could have been psychological warfare, a common practice among coaches, that prompted Green to call the Irish "a very superior team that makes us shake all over."

Green quoted Paul Amen, Army scout who has seen four Notre Dame games this year, as saying "this is the best Notre Dame team" he has ever scouted.

Cadets Confident

But up here on the plain the corps of cadets refused to let these reports dim their enthusiasm over the climatic game in a long series which dates back to 1913. The grim, grey buildings of the academy were draped with white sheets before dawn, all depicting and predicting an Army victory.

With the exception of the 300 men of the first class who will make the trip to South Bend, the corps will have to resort to radio and newspapers for a description of the game. The pre-game excitement among the cadets was reported to be the same; however, as though the game was being played in New York, traditional meeting place of the two rivals.

Blaik appeared to be contemplating no change in lineup from that which started against Washington and Lee last Saturday. Blaik indicated that Ray Drury would retain his new hold on left tackle, replacing Phil Feir and Charles Galloway who alternated there all fall. Drury has completely recovered from an early season injury.

Newark, N. J.—Billy Cooper, 160½, Paterson, N. J., outpointed Ruben Jones, 169½, Norfolk, Va., 10.

Football's Mr. Toe Likes It Hard Way

Los Angeles, Nov. 4 (AP)—The inside story of how Toeless Ben Agajanian missed his first conversion attempt in four years, as told by Mike Pecarovich, former Loyola (L.A.) coach now scouting for the New York Yankees:

San Francisco players lining up for the extra point try after the Dons had scored a useless touchdown on the last play of the game yelled to Automatic Aggy: "Go ahead and kick, we're not going to bother you."

Agajanian, apparently flustered at not being rushed, flubbed his first conversion in some 115 tries.

Football Briefs

Dartmouth
Hanover, N. H., Nov. 4 (AP)—Dartmouth's Indians, who were recharged with a holiday for their valiant Yale game efforts but today they will get down to hard work for Saturday's clash with Columbia in New York.

Coach "Tuss" McLaughry, impressed by their performances against the Elis, plans to pile additional offensive responsibilities upon the capable shoulders of quarterback Joe Sullivan and Eddie Williams, the flashy Negro left halfback.

Syracuse
Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 4 (AP)—Injured halfbacks Eddie Dolan and Rip Fornal appear to be fit for Syracuse University's clash with the Cornell football team Saturday.

The pair, who did not participate in the Orangemen's loss to Lafayette last Saturday, displayed top-form speed and drive in yesterday's drill.

Cornell
Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 4 (AP)—Jack Rogers had Matt Bolger's left end berth today on Cornell University's varsity football squad, for the game with Syracuse Saturday.

Coach Lefty James moved Rogers up yesterday as a result of the talent the 200-pound junior showed against Columbia last Saturday.

Colgate
Hamilton, N. Y., Nov. 4 (AP)—Colgate University's football team may be minus tackle Paul Redfield and Robert Reich in the contest next Saturday at Holy Cross.

Both suffered injuries in last Saturday's defeat by Penn State and appeared likely to be out for a while.

However, quarterback Charles Bricker, guard Vincent Vetrano and halfback Paul Mulligan are expected to be in the line again. They missed last week's game.

Pinehurst Course Defies Ace Golfers

Pinehurst, N. C., Nov. 4 (AP)—The North and South Open Tournament, which has resisted stubbornly through the past 45 years the efforts of most of the games' greatest players, busters was again the battlefield of the topnotch golfers today.

The historic No. 2 course, a 6,879-yard challenge to master and duffer alike, met the onslaught of 95 players as the 72-hole grind began, with $7,500 in prize money to be awarded at the conclusion of a 36-hole windup Thursday.

Only seven times in the 28 years the North and South has been a 72-hole tournament has 280 been broken. The record of 271, set in 1942 by Ben Hogan, who won last year for the third time, is the only score better than 276.

For the first time in the event's history, a player was eligible to compete who had never before played the course. He was the 52-year-old, 5-foot-10-inch, 150-pound, 68-year-old, 76-year-old, 43-year-old, 44-year-old, 45-year-old, 46-year-old, 47-year-old, 48-year-old, 49-year-old, 50-year-old, 51-year-old, 52-year-old, 53-year-old, 54-year-old, 55-year-old, 56-year-old, 57-year-old, 58-year-old, 59-year-old, 60-year-old, 61-year-old, 62-year-old, 63-year-old, 64-year-old, 65-year-old, 66-year-old, 67-year-old, 68-year-old, 69-year-old, 70-year-old, 71-year-old, 72-year-old, 73-year-old, 74-year-old, 75-year-old, 76-year-old, 77-year-old, 78-year-old, 79-year-old, 80-year-old, 81-year-old, 82-year-old, 83-year-old, 84-year-old, 85-year-old, 86-year-old, 87-year-old, 88-year-old, 89-year-old, 90-year-old, 91-year-old, 92-year-old, 93-year-old, 94-year-old, 95-year-old.

National Horse Show Starts at Garden

New York, Nov. 4 (AP)—The National Horse Show opens an eight-day run at Madison Square Garden today. A matinee performance was scheduled, but the formal opening will take place tonight, bringing with it the outpouring of society fashion and glamor for which the show has been noted since its start in 1883.

A parade of the army jumping teams of Canada, Ireland, Mexico and the United States, scheduled for 9 p. m., will launch the army riders on a series of 11 military jumping contests.

Back on its prewar schedule of eight full days, the show has attracted a record entry from 16 states and three foreign countries.

The equine "world series" has drawn 241 exhibitors whose 418 horses will compete for $30,000 in prizes.

Washington—John (Honey Boy) Williams, 138, New York, outpointed Herbert (Biff) Jones, 138, Washington, 10.

S.M.U. Third Behind Michigan; Penn Rated 4th, So. Cal. 5th

New York, Nov. 4 (AP)—Notre Dame's unbeaten and untied eleven, which Coach Leahy admits "has finally reached its true stride," remained the number one college football team in the nation today in the weekly Associated Press poll of sports writers.

The South Bend griders face their biggest test of the campaign Saturday when they meet Army in the final game of a long series between the traditional rivals. Cadet Coach Earl Blaik predicted the Irish would throw all of their manpower and strategic resources into the game.

Michigan's Wolverines who kept their slate clean by defeating a tough Illinois team 14-7 in a grueling game that might well have decided the Big Nine's Rose Bowl representative, retained second place.

S.M.U. Now Third
Southern Methodist, upset victor over previously unbeaten Texas by the slim margin of one point, surprised by taking over third spot from the Longhorns. The Mustangs made the biggest gain of the week, vaulting from eighth place, Penn. Southern California, Georgia Tech, Penn State, Texas, Army and Virginia followed in that order.

The point score showed Notre Dame on top at 1,731 with Michigan not far behind at 1,661. S.M.U.'s third place total was 1,187, 51 more than the 1,136 points Penn rolled to retain fourth place. Besides Penn, fifth place Southern California's 1,082, sixth place Georgia Tech (1,041) and seventh place Penn State (701) held on to their positions of seven days ago.

Of the trio only Georgia Tech is expected to get more than a workout next Saturday. The Yellow Jackets meet off beaten but dangerous Navy.

Texas Stumps
The biggest drop of the week was experienced by Texas which skidded five berths into eighth place with only 553 points as a result of its 14-13 setback by the Mustangs.

Army's 65-13 thumping of Washington & Lee earned the Cadets a step up the ladder into ninth place with 291 points. Unbeaten and untied Virginia, in 12th position last week, climbed into the Big Ten by polling 248 votes.

The Standings
Team standings with points figured on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis (first place votes in parentheses):
1—Notre Dame (106) . . . 1731
2—Michigan (56) . . . 1661
3—Southern Methodist (7) . . . 1187
4—Pennsylvania (8) . . . 1136
5—Southern California (2) . . . 1082
6—Georgia Tech (6) . . . 1041
7—Penn State (2) . . . 701
8—Texas . . . 553

Clippers-Chez Emile Fives In Key Y League Contests

Sickler's Delivery supremacy in the Y Autumn League will continue for at least another week due to a bye in the schedule, but Kerhonkson's rangy Otto Clippers and Chez Emile will attempt to do something about improving their contending positions in the weekly bracket of games on the Y court tonight.

Sickler's unheralded at the start of the campaign, have an unblemished record with four straight wins. The Clippers have won three out of four, while Chez Emile has been victorious in two of three starts, to tie with Fuller's Fashions.

The Clippers can tighten their grip on second place with a win over the highly explosive Fuller's in the 9 o'clock attraction.

Ace Players Involved
Considerable fan interest is centered on the Fuller-Clippers clash, particularly in view of the fact that Big Bud Terwilliger, Kerhonkson's 6 foot 6 center squares off against veteran Hank Krum, and the Schoonmaker brothers will try to shackle the high scoring Bock brothers, Charlie and Eddie.

Tonight's schedule:
7 p. m.—Willitoy Motors vs. Potter Bros.
8 p. m.—Pioneers vs. V.F.W.
9 p. m.—Otto Clippers vs. Fuller's

Poughkeepsie Ring Aces Featured Here Thursday

The ear scrambling on Thursday night's amateur boxing card at municipal auditorium will have a definite Poughkeepsie tinge, with three Bridge City worthies scheduled in the five-round bouts.

Foremost, of course, is Jimmy Beau, the talented 150-pounder, who challenges Tony Barone's long reign of supremacy in the Broadway arena.

Mike Salle, a speedy welterweight is scheduled to travel five rounds or less against Ricci Leland, of the crack Gary, Indiana stable; while Al Williams faces Buck Raven, of Gary, in the 170-pound bout.

Decker Battles Morton
These three bouts vie for top honors with the George "Babyface" Decker and Harold Morton, who will be feudin' and a fussin' to settle a private grudge. Enai Brith railbirds confidently predict that this will be the bout of the night, although the Barone-Beau headliner is not being sold short.

Barney Emerson, the St. Remi crowd pleaser, returns to action after a long layoff and is reported in top shape for his three-rounder against popular Pat Saruth of Schenectady.

Beau Is Primed
Beau, the dancing master, has been dicker for a return bout with Barone, the Durable Dorpan, since he suffered a decisive defeat on the Carnival of Champions bout at the stadium last summer. Beau's record is impressive in Newburgh, Poughkeepsie and upstate rings but he won't be satisfied with himself until he can square matters with hatchet-faced Tony, who obviously isn't squared so easily.

Salle, a smooth boxing Bridge City welter, faces rugged opposition in Ricci Leland, who comes to Kingston with the solid reputation of Steel City boxers who invariably give a good account of himself. Salle's fortunes depend upon himself. When he is in shape, the Poughkeepsie is a hard man to shake.

The complete card:
Five Rounders
Tony Barone, 147, Schenectady vs. Jimmy Beau, 150, Poughkeepsie.
Mike Salle, 145, Poughkeepsie vs. Ricci Leland, 147, Gary, Indiana.
Al Williams, 168, Poughkeepsie vs. Buck Raven, 170, Gary.
Three Rounders
Mickey Starr, 118, Poughkeepsie vs. Buck Raven, 118, Utica.
Barney Emerson, 122, Kingston vs. Pat Saruth, 120, Schenectady.
Sam LoGalbo, 137, Utica vs. Jack Buckley, Newburgh, 135.

Bowling

If there were any lingering doubts about this being a different season for the Colonials, City Bowling League champions, they were removed last night. Different in that Pete Keresman's trundlers are apt to lose as many games in a single night as they did in six weeks last year.

Like when Jack's Restaurant crowd-barrered them three in a row on the Y alleys, as Johnny Ferraro set the pace with 634, high for the night. Jack's copped the opener, 895-892, and romped home in the next two.

Ferraro shot 193-217-224. Larry Weishaupt added 212; Ray Roux 222 and Dick Howard 217 for the winners. Cliff Quirk paced the Colonials with 206-362.

Rice Shouts 609
Fred Rice continued his great bowling with a 163-232-214 effort as Jack's Grill put the whitewash on the Y.M.C.A. Herb Van Deusen added 219 and "Mate" Wood 206. Burt Burr, Y leader, sandwiched 187 with 214 and 203 for 604.

Jones Dairy effected the kalsome treatment on the Immanuel's. Al Kiefer posting 593 with 201 and 229; John Sangi 333 and Ad Jones 222. Irv Alward hit 205-203-575 for Immanuel's.

Simmons Tops Freeman
Warren Simmons of the No. 1 squad took over his customary role of high scorer in the Freeman league with a 208 and 511 but his team dropped a pair to the No. 2s led by H. Steeger's 472. Nick Huber rolled 471 for the No. 4.

Independent League
Ray DuBois' 206-579 effort for Jump's Market powered his team to a sweep over Wilber Coal and set the pace in the Independent circuit. Other top scores were Don Vogel 201-549; Bill Davis 551; Jim Roe 222; R. Henry 222.

Old Timers Click
Ben Cohen and Reuben Leventhal, a couple of old timers who were bowling before most of their Good Neighbor League contemporaries ever saw a bowling ball, flashed their wizardry in the circuit with 571 and 539 respectively. Cohen shot a string of 179-190-202, while Leventhal's high was 202. M. Schwartz shot 526. Dr. Saul Goldfarb extracted 511; Mike Levy had 531 and George Goldfarb 517 not to overlook Sam Mason with 505.

Grain Leaves Philadelphia
Philadelphia, Nov. 4 (AP)—A total of 2,402,786 bushels of grain has left the port of Philadelphia for foreign ports during the month of October, says John H. Frazier, managing director of the Commercial Exchange. Frazier said yesterday most of the October shipments were bound for western Europe although some went to Greece, India, South Africa, Egypt, Arabia and Venezuela. The October figure included 237,180 bushels of oats with the remainder being wheat. The October total, Frazier said, brings the total shipped from this port in the first 10 months of 1947 to 44,595,523, within one million bushels of the 1946 yearly total.

Ad Jones Blasts a 617
Ad Jones blasted a 617 on top of 196 and 190 to grab individual honors in the Y Mercantile League with 513. Eddie Schupp, 196, 190, 190, tossed games of 201 and 209 and a 575 triple. "Pop" Myers rolled 200 even.

Coast Grid Hero Of 1946 Is Now Bum to Editor

Los Angeles, Nov. 4 (AP)—Move over, Jimmy Phelan, Bert La Brucherie has just been spared by a student sportswriter.

The U.C.L.A. coach received a brickbat from Daily Bruin Sports Editor Bob Alford yesterday charging him with responsibility for the 6-0 defeat by California.

"The whole thing lies in La Brucherie's refusal to put any trust in his quarterbacks," wrote Alford in his column, adding there's "no continuity, no sparc, no drive because the quarterback knows that right at his back is Bert with the hook."

The writer accused La Brucherie of calling all plays from the bench "after the first five minutes."

Phelan, St. Mary's coach, was harpooned by a Gael undergraduate writer a month ago. It was the first dart at La Brucherie, who won the 1946 coast conference title.

Preaching Mission Continues; 600 Are At Second Session

Continuing the preaching mission sponsored by the Kingston Ministerial Association at the First Dutch Reformed Church, the Rev. Dr. Raymond I. Lindquist Monday night chose as his subject, "The Power That Altered History." About 600 attended.
He used as his key words in the theme, "wash your nets," referring to those of the disciple fishermen. He advised people to do whatever task thoroughly and completely. Everything that is done has a beginning, continuing and ending, he noted. "What you do is a result of what you think," he said as he developed his topic.
The Catskill Glee Club under the direction of Roland Heermance sang three anthems. The Rev. David C. Galse of Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, and the Rev. Arthur E. Oudemool of the host church assisted in the service. Mrs. Raymond H. Rignall was at the organ.
Tonight the mission will be continued. The Rev. Herbert Killander, Trinity Methodist Church, and the Rev. Dr. Osterhout Phillips, Poughkeepsie Congregational Church, will preside. The combined choirs of the Reformed Church of the Comforter and Clinton Avenue Methodist Church will sing under the direction of Frank Elmendorf and Vernon S. Miller. Paul Barnum will be organist.

Magill is a New York lawyer and a former assistant secretary of the Treasury early in the Franklin D. Roosevelt administration. Besides him and Wolf the study group is composed of Gov. Frank Carlson of Kansas, John L. Connolly, St. Paul lawyer; J. Cheever Cowdin, Universal Pictures Company, New York; C. S. Duncan, Association of American Railroads, Washington; John W. Lane, New York lawyer; E. H. Lane, Sr., The Lane Company, Inc., Alta Vista, Va.; Wright Matthews, Dallas lawyer, and W. S. Moscrip, president of the Twin-Cities Milk Producers Association, Lake Elmo, Minn.
An indication of the fireworks ahead on co-op taxation came from preliminary condemning the co-op spokesmen and the National Tax Equality Association.
The association issued a statement saying the co-op invasion of the American economy is fast extinguishing competing small businesses.
Roy Hendrickson, representing the National Federation of Grain Co-ops, retorted at a news conference that the association is waging a "tremendous campaign" to raise funds, concentrating "its public fire on the tax exemption phase, while it is interested in crippling co-ops."

his defense of the $40,000,000 worth of plane contracts he was awarded during the war.
That is the proof that his 200-ton plywood flying boat, the world's largest, will at least leave the water. Hughes lifted it into the air Sunday on the third of three announced taxi runs.
The flying boat contract is one of two with which the committee concerned itself in the earlier two-week hearings, among the stormiest ever held on Capitol Hill.
The government investment in the big cargo plane is $18,000,000, and Hughes contends he put up to $7,000,000 more of his own funds into it. At Sarasota, Fla., Senator Pepper (R-Fla.), a member of the Ferguson subcommittee, told reporters the plane flight "should practically terminate the investigation."
The other contract is for a photo reconnaissance plane, the F-11 on which the government spent $22,000,000.
Ferguson has said he wants to question Hughes and the plane builder's publicity man, John W. Meyers, anew about the expenses which Meyer testified earlier he incurred in entertaining high army and government officials prior to award of the contract.
It was Meyer's absence which Ferguson gave as the reason for calling off the hearings last August 11.

Circuit Judge John C. Stennis and Rep. William M. Colmer.
Stennis and Colmer concentrated their campaigns on the voting element which opposed Bilbo in the past.
The lone Republican candidate was L. R. Collins.
Only a simple plurality was needed to win election for the five years remaining of Bilbo's Senate term.
In New York three candidates ran for Congress in the 14th (Brooklyn) district to succeed Rep. Leo F. Raybier (D.), who has been appointed to a federal judgeship. They were Abraham J. Miller, Democrat-Liberal, Jacob P. Lefkowitz, Republican, and Victor Rabinowitz, American Labor. The Republican party received only 25 per cent of the district's vote a year ago.
Both major parties predicted approval of a $400,000,000 New York state bonus.

life. Winant was regarded by friends and foes as a progressive politician.
His first post after relinquishing the governorship in 1934 was as head of the Federal Textile Labor Board and he acted as mediator in the large northeastern textile strike that year.

Held Series of Positions
Never a political candidate again, Winant held a series of public positions.
President Roosevelt named him as the first head of the Social Security Board, later he became chief of the International Labor Office at Geneva.

He was appointed ambassador to the Court of St. James in 1941 during the blitz.
Friends said he spent nights during the bombing raids on the streets of London, talking to people pitching in to help—but never identifying himself.
When Winant was leaving Britain as ambassador, Winston Churchill delivered the valedictory tribute describing him as "a true, faithful and unyielding friend."
Winant was ambassador when the United Nations Economic and Social Council was organized in London in January, 1946, and two months later was named by President Truman as this country's permanent representative on U.N.E.S.C.O.

Last December, he asked to be relieved of this post "to pick up life again as a private citizen in my own country."
Lincolnesque in appearance, Winant was a great admirer of the Civil War president, quoted him in his speeches and collected his works.

Winant leaves his widow, the former Constance Rivington Russell, two sons, John G., Jr., a student at Princeton and World War 2 flier, and Livingston, a student at Oxford, and one daughter, Mrs. Carlos de C. Velando of Lima, Peru.
His mother, Mrs. Jeanette Winant, and a brother, Frederick, also survive.
Simple funeral services will be conducted tomorrow in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, at 2 p. m. (E.S.T.) with burial in the Blossom Hill Cemetery, Concord.
Bishop John T. Dallas of St. Paul's will officiate.

Grants Are Authorized
New York, Nov. 4 (AP)—Reports that supplemental grants had been authorized for two relief recipients to pay special union assessments to fight the Taft-Hartley Law came under investigation yesterday as ailing Welfare Commissioner Benjamin Fielding authorized a denial that any such funds had been paid. Fielding directed an inquiry into the two cases from his hospital bed where he has been recovering since last Friday from what a physician described as physical exhaustion. The investigation was ordered after the cases had been publicized.
